**NGOs are non-governmental organizations, usually tax-exempt and/or tax-deductible, 501, 527, private PACs, foundations or non-profits, think tanks, often receiving government grants and foreign donations to finance operations, not always within the purview of the organizations publicly stated purpose.*

Official TNALC Position on the U.S. Patriot Act

As a pro-Constitution citizen-operated education, investigation and activism non-profit organization with a fundamental focus upon the Charters of Freedom, Liberty, National Sovereignty and Security, the North American Law Center (TNALC) has taken issue with the overly broad powers of the U.S. Patriot Act. While we acknowledge the need for improved intelligence gathering, sharing among agencies and national security tools in a post-911 America, we also oppose in general, the overreaching nature of the Patriot Act, in particular, the overly broad use of the term “domestic terrorist” and the suspension of habeas corpus provided for in the Patriot Act.

While such a powerful weapon may indeed provide for a more secure country at a time in history when international terrorism poses a significant threat to all peaceful societies, that weapon can also be used, and to some degree, has been used, as a weapon to silence honest peaceful dissenting political grievances among legal American citizens deeply concerned about the future of freedom and liberty in America.

This report is based upon existing U.S. Codes related to anti-terrorism measures designed to prevent those who intend harm to the United States, the U.S. Constitution, our Republican form of government, duly elected representatives of the American people and the American people themselves, from carrying out any form of subversion, sedition, treachery, treason, tyranny, terrorism, insurrection or internal insurgency against the United States.

So long as the Patriot Act remains part of U.S. Code designed to protect the United States against such individuals, organizations and acts on American soil, these laws should be applied evenly to all who operate in violation of these laws, with a clear purpose or intent to harm the United States.

Once the United States accepted foreign terrorists on U.S. soil, and vandalism or violence as a form of “free speech,” acting as though there is a “constitutional right” to terrorize this country within, the need for a law such as the Patriot Act would become inevitable.

It is our position that the Patriot Act should not be used against peaceful legal citizens with dissenting political views who express those views in a manner protected by the First Amendment – nor should such a law even be necessary in the United States – and that if applied properly to all bad-actors who violate these and other U.S. Laws, the Act should and will become obsolete in the future.

The Stated Purpose of the Patriot Act

The USA PATRIOT Act is an Act of Congress that was signed into law by President George W. Bush on October 26, 2001. With its ten-letter abbreviation (USA PATRIOT) expanded, the full title is "Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001".

Prior to the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks in New York City and Washington D.C. which resulted in the death of over 3000 innocent American men, women and children, the primary function of the U.S. Department of Justice was not counter-terrorism. It's primary function within the Federal Government was to provide for the equal application and enforcement of U.S. Laws and uphold the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights.

However, with the passage of the USA PATRIOT Act, the Justice Department has taken the position that “The Department of Justice's first priority is to prevent future terrorist attacks.”

In a post-911 America, the USA PATRIOT Act was passed nearly unanimously by the Senate 98-1, and 357-66 in the House, with the support of members from across the political spectrum. According to the U.S. Department of Justice, the stated purpose of the USA PATRIOT Act is “Preserving Life and Liberty.”

“Since its passage following the September 11, 2001 attacks, the Patriot Act has played a key part - and often the leading role - in a number of successful operations to protect innocent Americans from the deadly plans of terrorists dedicated to destroying America and our way of life. While the results have been important, in passing the Patriot Act, Congress provided for only modest, incremental changes in the law. Congress simply took existing legal principles and retrofitted them to preserve the lives and liberty of the American people from the challenges posed by a global terrorist network.”

...” the Patriot Act has played a key part - and often the leading role - in a number of successful operations to protect innocent Americans from the deadly plans of terrorists dedicated to destroying America and our way of life.”

Yet, known terrorists have been allowed to operate with immunity on U.S. soil before, during and since September 11, 2001 – in the form of known Islamic terror training camps – terror-funding or organizing Mosques – as well as known national and global NGOs (non-governmental organizations) highly organized, trained and funded by a relatively small number of anti-American insurgents with a clear, stated intent to undermine and destroy the duly elected government of the United States, and our way of life.

The USA PATRIOT Act was designed and passed for the single purpose of preventing such activities on U.S. soil and they should be used judiciously for that purpose.

Related Provisions of the USA PATRIOT Act

György Schwartz, aka George Soros and his nearly endless list of national and international NGOs are internationally notorious for their global nation-wrecking operations. Other nations like Hungary are taking swift governmental actions to crack down on or “sweep out” all Soros NGOs from their countries, often introducing new legislations for that sole purpose.

But in the United States, the activities of Soros NGOs are easily identified as violations of the already existing USA PATRIOT Act. Simplistically, among numerous other laws and provisions, the following provisions of the Act can and should be applied to the entire Soros NGO network immediately. (<https://www.justice.gov/archive/ll/highlights.htm>)

Under updates to the original PATRIOT Act, Section 802 of the USA PATRIOT Act (Pub. L. No. 107-52) expanded the definition of terrorism to cover “domestic,” as opposed to international, terrorism. A person engages in domestic terrorism if they do an act “dangerous to human life,” including the following acts;

- (i) intimidate or coerce a civilian population;

- (ii) influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion; or
- (iii) to affect the conduct of a government by mass destruction, assassination or kidnapping.

Additionally, the acts have to occur primarily within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States and if they do not, may be regarded as international terrorism.

Seizure of assets - Sec. 806: Section 806 of the Act could result in the civil seizure of their assets without a prior hearing, and without them ever being convicted of a crime. It is by far the most significant change of which political organizations need to be aware. Section 806 amended the civil asset forfeiture statute to authorize the government to seize and forfeit: all assets, foreign or domestic;

- (i) of any individual, entity, or organization engaged in planning or perpetrating any act of domestic or international terrorism against the United States, or their property, and all assets, foreign or domestic, affording any person a source of influence over any such entity or organization or
- (ii) acquired or maintained by any person with the intent and for the purpose of supporting, planning, conducting, or concealing an act of domestic or international terrorism against the United States, citizens or residents of the United States or their property or
- (iii) derived from, involved in, or used or intended to be used to commit any act of domestic or international terrorism against the United States, citizens or residents of the United States, or their property.

The civil asset forfeiture power of the United States government is awesome. The government can seize and/or freeze the assets on the mere assertion that there is probable cause to believe that the assets were involved in domestic terrorism. The assets are seized before a person is given a hearing, and often without notice. In order to permanently forfeit the assets, the government must go before a court, but at a civil hearing, and the government is only required to prove that the assets were involved in terrorism by a preponderance of the evidence. Because it is a civil proceeding, a person is not entitled to be represented by an attorney at public expense if they cannot afford to pay an attorney. The time between seizure and forfeiture can sometimes be months; meanwhile, organizations or individuals whose assets are seized are forced to make do without the assets. Only the most financially flush non-profit organizations would be able to successfully defend themselves against government forfeiture. In short, without the full due process afforded in criminal cases, the U.S. government can bankrupt political organizations it asserts are involved in domestic terrorism. (ACLU)

Biographical Information on György Schwartz, AKA George Soros

George Soros was born György Schwartz on August 12, 1930 in Budapest, Hungary. He graduated the London School of Economics and Political Science and the University of Toronto Mississauga in 1954 and has five children, Alexander Soros, Jonathan Soros, Andrea Soros, Robert Soros and Gregory Soros.

Soros founded the highly profitable Soros Fund Management LLC and Quantum Fund and has an estimated net worth of $26.5 Billion.

- He moved to New York City in 1956 and was employed as an arbitrage trader for F.M. Mayer till 1959. Afterwards he became a financial analyst for Wertheim & Co., a position he held till 1963. Soros allegedly became a dual citizen of the United States and Hungary in 1961.
- Influenced by Karl Popper's views, he adapted the philosopher's ideas to develop a social theory of 'reflexivity' that could explain the market valuation of assets in the market.
- In 1963 he was appointed the vice president of Arnhold and S. Bleichroeder. However, he did not find much fulfillment in the job though he held it till 1973.
- He founded the Quantum Group of Funds, privately owned hedge funds, in partnership with Jim Rogers in 1973.
- During the 16 September 1992 currency crisis in the U.K. known as 'Black Wednesday', Soros made a profit of U.S. $1 billion through short selling Sterling, gaining the name 'The Man Who Broke the Bank of England'
- He began his philanthropic activities in the 1970's when he started forming a network of foundations mostly based in countries in Central and Eastern Europe, Soviet Union and Africa which allegedly work to promote democratization, education and public health. The Soros Foundations operate in more than 60 countries worldwide.
- He formed the first Open Society Institute in Hungary in 1984 with a budget of $3 million.
- He founded the Open Society Foundations (OSF), headquartered in New York City, in 1993. The foundations claim to support initiatives in the areas of education, rule of law and independent media among several others.
- A fervent supporter of open-border progressive and liberal political views, he donated heavily to the U.S. political causes to support Democrats in the 2004 election. He gave $3 million to the Center for American Progress and $20 million to America Coming Together.
- He supported the economist Jeffrey Sachs in his endeavor, the Millennium Promise to provide educational and medical aid to poverty-stricken villages in Africa. He pledged $50 million to the initiative in 2006.
- He helped found the Institute for New Economic Thinking (INET) in 2009 with an initial funding of $50 million. The institute is a nonprofit globalism think tank based in New York City.
- He donated $1 million to the Drug Policy Alliance campaign in 2010 to fund Proposition 19 to legalize marijuana in the state of California. But the Proposition did not pass in the November 2010 elections.
- He has authored or co-authored several books on financial and political issues including 'Open Society: Reforming Global Capitalism' (2001) and 'The Age of Fallibility: Consequences of the War on Terror' (2006).

He was presented the Yale International Center for Finance Award from the Yale School of Management in 2000. Read more at <http://www.thefamouspeople.com/profiles/george-soros-1510.php#53iQLlJqDZz917lr.99>

Statements by György Schwartz, aka, George Soros regarding his involvement with Nazis

The nefarious activities of George Soros have spanned the globe for decades. Much like Karl Marx, who often spoke eloquently of “democracy” with great reverence, but also stated that “democracy is the road to communism,” Soros too has a strange view of democracy and freedom. In a May 2014 interview with CNN’s Fareed Zakaria, Soros was asked about his involvement in the Orange Revolution in Ukraine and Georgia, ultimately contributing to the overthrow of elected leaders and the installation of a junta handpicked by the U.S. State Department.

Fareed Zakaria – “First on Ukraine, one of the things that many people recognized about you was that you during the revolutions of 1989 funded a lot of dissident activities, civil society groups in eastern Europe and Poland, the Czech Republic. Are you doing similar things in Ukraine?”

George Soros – “Well, I set up a foundation in Ukraine before Ukraine became independent of Russia. And the foundation has been functioning ever since and played an important part in events now.”

The Soros insurgency model is based on his use of NGOs (non-governmental organizations) to organize and mobilize anti-government activists and anarchists to undermine official laws and policies, often funded by taxpayers through tax-exempt and tax-deductible “charities” operating under the guise of “volunteer democratic” purposes, always targeting those taxpayers and volunteers in the end.

Soros has repeatedly stated in interviews, including in a 60 Minutes expose’, that “1944 was the best year of his life.” 1944 was the year that 70% of his fellow Jews were murdered in cold blood by Hitler’s Nazis, whom Soros, then age 14, admittedly openly collaborated with in that horrific event.

The exchange that then took place with 60 Minutes host Steve Kroft, was absolutely horrifying...

KROFT: My understanding is that you went out with this protector of yours who swore that you were his adopted godson.

SOROS: “Yes. Yes.”

KROFT: Went out, in fact, and helped in the confiscation of property from your fellow Jews, friends and neighbors.

SOROS: “Yes. That’s right. Yes.”

KROFT: I mean, that sounds like an experience that would send lots of people to the psychiatric couch for many, many, years. Was it difficult?

SOROS: “No, not at all. Not at all, I rather enjoyed it.”

KROFT: No feelings of guilt?

SOROS: “No, only feelings of absolute power.”

George Soros has demonstrated throughout his life that he has no conscience, no soul, no sense of responsibility or loyalty to anyone beyond himself. He has proven again and again that his personal quest for wealth and power has no limits – That there is no one, no country, he will not destroy for the sake of his own personal gain and no limit to the many methods of terror he is willing to employ in pursuit of his ultimate agenda. He has also repeatedly demonstrated hate for the United States and the U.S. Constitution. George Soros is best described as a white-collar Bin Laden.

Soros has wreaked havoc on nations all over the globe and is a wanted man in some countries, as a result. Now, Soros uses the same constantly successful NGO model to destroy the United States from within.

Seven “revolutions” financed and run by György Schwartz, AKA George Soros

1. The ‘Bulldozer Revolution’ in Serbia – October 5, 2000
2. The “Rose Revolution” in Georgia – November 2003
3. The “Orange Revolution” Ukraine – November 2004
4. Soros’ Radical in the White House 2004-2008 – Barack Hussein Obama
5. Soros, the “Founding Father of Islamist Turkey” – June 2006
6. Soros generated civil unrest in Egypt – May 2007
7. Soros’ “Purple Revolution” in the United States – 2014 to present

These notable events are only the tip of the proverbial iceberg... George Soros has been nation-wrecking ever since his involvement with Nazis in Hungary as a youth. The evil he faced in youth influenced his world view and his drive to destroy governments, economies, currencies and people all over the globe.

Between 2004 and 2008, Soros focused his billions upon seating a known left-wing Islamic radical in the U.S. White House, working in concert with the Democratic Party, international anti-American state sponsors of terrorism, 60s radicals associated with Obama through William Ayers Weather Underground and the Kennedy family to achieve that goal.

Soros Blue Print for “Velvet Revolution” (aka, Purple Revolution) in the U.S.A.

Between January 2009 and today, Soros has built an enormous network of NGOs here and abroad and his blue print for toppling governments around the globe, across the Middle East and the United States “the Great Satan,” has never changed. His model for nation wrecking remains the same throughout the world, as was well outlined in a 2004 three-part essay by author Richard Poe, titled Velvet Revolution, USA;

1. Form a Shadow Government [of powerful NGOs]
2. Control the airwaves – [“fake news”]
3. Bleed the State dry – [Cloward-Piven Strategy]
4. Sow unrest – [Ferguson, Berkeley, D.C., mass divisions and riots during elections and post-election town hall and legislative insurrections, backed by media coverage]
5. Provoke election crisis – [“rigged elections” – Russian hacking, etc.]

6. Take the Streets – [operation indivisible, OFA (Organizing For Action), Netroots, CAIR, MoveOn, Code Pink, NOW, Muslim Brotherhood, LaRaza, race-baiting congressional caucuses, the Southern Poverty Law Center and the Clinton Foundation, etc.]
7. Above all else, Outlast your Opponents

This is the NGO model Soros has used in Serbia, Turkey, Georgia, Ukraine, Hungary, the Middle East, Britain, the EU and now the United States. The revolution names and places change, but the Soros pattern and NGO model remains the same.

The NGO model allows Soros' global partners to funnel billions through a network of NGOs, many of which are 501 tax-deductible and tax-exempt organizations in the United States, often receiving Federal grants and government access to policy-makers sympathetic to the global left's anti-American agenda, while remaining at an "arms-length" away from Soros himself for purposes of plausible deniability.

Numerous countries that have suffered the impact of a Soros NGO assault on their nations are now moving to shut down Soros NGO operations within their borders and stop the intentional wrecking of their people by Soros and friends.

Bloomberg reported 10, January, 2017 – "Hungary plans to crack down on non-governmental organizations linked to billionaire George Soros now that Donald Trump will occupy the White House, according to the deputy head of Prime Minister Viktor Orban's party. The European Union member will use "all the tools at its disposal" to "sweep out" NGOs funded by the Hungarian-born financier, which "serve global capitalists and back political correctness over national governments," Szilard Nemeth, a vice president of the ruling Fidesz party, told reporters on Tuesday."

The New York Times reported 1, March, 2017 – "BUDAPEST — Emboldened by encouraging signals from the Trump administration, populist leaders across Central and Eastern Europe are mounting simultaneous crackdowns on nongovernmental organizations, once protected by Washington, that promote open government, aid refugees and often serve as checks on authoritarian governments."

Why has the United States allowed Soros NGOs to wage war on other countries and the United States from the safe haven of New York City? Simply follow the political campaign money for the answer to this question.

Soros Network of NGOs (non-governmental organizations)

Organizations that, in recent years, have received direct funding and assistance from George Soros and his Open Society Foundations (OSF) include the following. (Comprehensive profiles of each are available in the "Groups" section of DiscoverTheNetworks.org):

- Advancement Project: This organization works to organize "communities of color" into politically cohesive units while disseminating its leftist worldviews and values as broadly as possible by way of a sophisticated communications department.
- Air America Radio: Now defunct, this was a self-identified "liberal" radio network.
- Al-Haq: This NGO produces highly politicized reports, papers, books and legal analyses propagating alleged Israeli human-rights abuses committed against Palestinians.

- All of Us or None: This organization seeks to change voting laws -- which vary from state to state -- so as to allow ex-inmates, parolees and even current inmates to cast their ballots in political elections. (Now expanding to illegal alien voters, Muslim refugees and lowering the voting age to 16)
- Alliance for Justice: Best known for its activism vis-a-vis the appointment of progressive federal judges. This group consistently depicts Republican judicial nominees as "extremists."
- America Coming Together: Soros played a major role in creating this group, whose purpose was to coordinate and organize pro-Democrat voter-mobilization programs. (often including busing voters to multiple districts)
- America Votes: Soros also played a major role in creating this group, whose get-out-the-vote campaigns targeted likely Democratic voters.
- America's Voice: This open-borders group seeks to promote "comprehensive" immigration reform that includes a robust agenda in favor of amnesty for illegal aliens.
- American Bar Association Commission on Immigration Policy: This organization "opposes laws that require employers and persons providing education, health care, or other social services to verify citizenship or immigration status."
- American Bridge 21st Century: This Super PAC conducts opposition research designed to help Democratic political candidates defeat their Republican foes.
- American Civil Liberties Union: This group opposes virtually all post-9/11 national security measures enacted by the U.S. government. It supports open borders, has rushed to the defense of suspected terrorists and their abettors and appointed former New Left terrorist Bernardine Dohrn to its Advisory Board.
- American Constitution Society for Law and Policy: This Washington, DC-based think tank seeks to move American jurisprudence to the left by recruiting, indoctrinating and mobilizing young law students, helping them acquire positions of power. It also provides leftist Democrats with a bully pulpit from which to denounce their political adversaries.
- American Family Voices: This group creates and coordinates media campaigns charging Republicans with wrongdoing.
- American Federation of Teachers: After longtime AFT President Albert Shanker died in 1997, he was succeeded by Sandra Feldman, who slowly "re-branded" the union, allying it with some of the most powerful left-wing elements of the New Labor Movement. When Feldman died in 2004, Edward McElroy took her place, followed by Randi Weingarten in 2008. All of them kept the union on the leftward course it had adopted in its post-Shanker period.
- American Friends Service Committee: This group views the United States as the principal cause of human suffering around the world. As such, it favors America's unilateral disarmament, the dissolution of American borders, amnesty for illegal aliens, the abolition of the death penalty and the repeal of the Patriot Act.
- American Immigration Council: This non-profit organization is a prominent member of the open-borders lobby. It advocates expanded rights and amnesty for illegal aliens residing in the U.S.

- American Immigration Law Foundation: This group supports amnesty for illegal aliens, on whose behalf it litigates against the U.S. government.
- American Independent News Network: This organization promotes "impact journalism" that advocates progressive change. (fake news)
- American Institute for Social Justice: AISJ's goal is to produce skilled community organizers who can "transform poor communities" by agitating for increased government spending on city services, drug interdiction, crime prevention, housing, public-sector jobs, access to healthcare and public schools.
- American Library Association: This group has been an outspoken critic of the Bush administration's War on Terror -- most particularly, Section 215 of the USA Patriot Act, which it calls "a present danger to the constitutional rights and privacy rights of library users."
- The American Prospect, Inc.: This corporation trains and mentors young leftwing journalists and organizes strategy meetings for leftist leaders.
- Amnesty International: This organization directs a grossly disproportionate share of its criticism for human rights violations at the United States and Israel.
- Applied Research Center: Viewing the United States as a nation where "structural racism" is deeply "embedded in the fabric of society," ARC seeks to "build a fair and equal society" by demanding "concrete change from our most powerful institutions."
- Arab American Institute Foundation: The Arab American Institute denounces the purportedly widespread civil liberty's violations directed against Arab Americans in the post-9/11 period and characterizes Israel as a brutal oppressor of the Palestinian people.
- Aspen Institute: This organization promotes radical environmentalism and views America as a nation plagued by deep-seated "structural racism."
- Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now: This group conducts voter mobilization drives on behalf of leftist Democrats. These initiatives have been notoriously marred by fraud and corruption.
- Ballot Initiative Strategy Center: This organization seeks to advance "a national progressive strategy" by means of ballot measures—state-level legislative proposals that pass successfully through a petition ("initiative") process and are then voted upon by the public.
- Bend The Arc: A Jewish Partnership for Justice: This organization condemns Voter ID laws as barriers that "make it harder for communities of color, women, first-time voters, the elderly and the poor to cast their vote."
- Bill of Rights Defense Committee: This group provides a detailed blueprint for activists interested in getting their local towns, cities and even college campuses to publicly declare their opposition to the Patriot Act and to designate themselves "Civil Liberties Safe Zones." The organization also came to the defense of self-described radical attorney Lynne Stewart, who was convicted in 2005 of providing material support for terrorism.

- Black Alliance for Just Immigration: This organization seeks to create a unified movement for “social and economic justice” centered on black racial identity.
- Blueprint North Carolina: This group seeks to “influence state policy in North Carolina so that residents of the state benefit from more progressive policies such as better access to health care, higher wages, more affordable housing, a safer, cleaner environment and access to reproductive health services.”
- Brennan Center for Justice: This think tank/legal activist group generates scholarly studies, mounts media campaigns, files amicus briefs, gives pro bono support to activists and litigates test cases in pursuit of radical "change."
- Brookings Institution: This organization has been involved with a variety of internationalist and state-sponsored programs, including one that aspires to facilitate the establishment of a U.N.-dominated world government. Brookings Fellows have also called for additional global collaboration on trade and banking; the expansion of the Kyoto Protocol; and nationalized health insurance for children. Nine Brookings economists signed a petition opposing President Bush's tax cuts in 2003.
- Campaign for America's Future: This group supports tax hikes, socialized medicine and a dramatic expansion of social welfare programs.
- Campaign for Better Health Care: This organization favors a single-payer, government-run, universal health care system.
- Campaign for Youth Justice: This organization contends that “transferring juveniles to the adult criminal-justice system leads to higher rates of recidivism, puts incarcerated and detained youth at unnecessary risk, has little deterrence value and does not increase public safety.”
- Campus Progress: A project of the Soros-bankrolled Center for American Progress, this group seeks to "strengthen progressive voices on college and university campuses, counter the growing influence of right-wing groups on campus and empower new generations of progressive leaders."
- Casa de Maryland: This organization aggressively lobbies legislators to vote in favor of policies that promote expanded rights, including amnesty, for illegal aliens currently residing in the United States.
- Catalist: This is a for-profit political consultancy that seeks "to help progressive organizations realize measurable increases in civic participation and electoral success by building and operating a robust national voter database of every voting-age American."
- Catholics for Choice: This nominally Catholic organization supports women's right to abortion-on-demand.
- Catholics in Alliance for the Common Good: This political nonprofit group is dedicated to generating support from the Catholic community for leftwing candidates, causes and legislation.
- Center for American Progress: This leftist think tank is headed by former Clinton chief of staff John Podesta, works closely with Hillary Clinton, and employs numerous former Clinton administration staffers. It is committed to "developing a long-term vision of a progressive America" and "providing a forum to generate new progressive ideas and policy proposals."

- Center for Community Change: This group recruits and trains activists to spearhead leftist "political issue campaigns." Promoting increased funding for social welfare programs by bringing "attention to major national issues related to poverty." The Center bases its training programs on the techniques taught by the famed radical organizer Saul Alinsky.
- Center for Constitutional Rights: This pro-Castro organization is a core member of the open border's lobby, has opposed virtually all post-9/11 anti-terrorism measures by the U.S. government and alleges that American injustice provokes acts of international terrorism.
- Center for Economic and Policy Research: This group opposed welfare reform, supports "living wage" laws, rejects tax cuts and consistently lauds the professed achievements of socialist regimes, most notably Venezuela.
- Center for International Policy: This organization uses advocacy, policy research, media outreach and educational initiatives to promote "transparency and accountability" in U.S. foreign policy and global relations. It generally views America as a disruptive, negative force in the world.
- Center for Reproductive Rights: CRR's mission is to guarantee safe, affordable contraception and abortion-on-demand for all women, including adolescents. The organization has filed state and federal lawsuits demanding access to taxpayer-funded abortions (through Medicaid) for low-income women.
- Center for Responsible Lending: This organization was a major player in the subprime mortgage crisis. According to Phil Kerpen (vice president for policy at Americans for Prosperity), CRL "sh[ook] down and harass[ed] banks into making bad loans to unqualified borrowers." Moreover, CRL negotiated a contract enabling it to operate as a conduit of high-risk loans to Fannie Mae.
- Center for Social Inclusion: This organization seeks to counteract America's "structural racism" by means of taxpayer-funded policy initiatives.
- Center on Budget and Policy Priorities: Reasoning from the premise that tax cuts generally help only the wealthy, this organization advocates greater tax expenditures on social welfare programs for low earners.
- Center on Wisconsin Strategy (COWS): Aiming to redistribute wealth by way of higher taxes imposed on those whose incomes are above average, COWS contend that "it is important that state government be able to harness fair contribution from all parts of society – including corporations and the wealthy."
- Change America Now: Formed in December 2006, Change America Now describes itself as "an independent political organization created to educate citizens on the failed policies of the Republican Congress and to contrast that record of failure with the promise offered by a Democratic agenda."
- Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington: This group litigates and brings ethics charges against "government officials who sacrifice the common good to special interests" and "betray the public trust." Almost all of its targets are Republicans.
- Coalition for an International Criminal Court: This group seeks to subordinate American criminal-justice procedures to those of an international court.

- Color Of Change: This organization was founded to combat what it views as “systemic racism” pervading America generally and conservatism in particular.
- Common Cause: This organization aims to bring about campaign-finance reform, pursue media reform resembling the Fairness Doctrine, and cut military budgets in favor of increased social-welfare and environmental spending.
- Constitution Project: This organization seeks to challenge the legality of military commissions; end the detainment of “enemy combatants”; condemn government surveillance of terrorists; and limit the President's executive privileges.
- Defenders of Wildlife Action Fund: Defenders of Wildlife opposes oil exploration in Alaska's Arctic National Wildlife Refuge. It condemns logging, ranching, mining and even the use of recreational motorized vehicles as activities that are destructive to the environment.
- Democracy Alliance: This self-described “liberal organization” aims to raise $200 million to develop a funding clearinghouse for leftist groups. Soros is a major donor to this group.
- Democracy 21: This group is a staunch supporter of the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002, also known as the McCain-Feingold Act.
- Democracy Now!: Democracy Now! was created in 1996 by WBAI radio news director Amy Goodman and four partners to provide “perspectives rarely heard in the U.S. corporate-sponsored media,” i.e., the views of radical and foreign journalists, left and labor activists and ideological foes of capitalism.
- Democratic Justice Fund: DJF opposes the Patriot Act and most efforts to restrict or regulate immigration into the United States -- particularly from countries designated by the State Department as “terrorist nations.”
- Democratic Party: Soros' funding activities are devoted largely to helping the Democratic Party solidify its power base. In a November 2003 interview, Soros stated that defeating President Bush in 2004 “is the central focus of my life” ... “a matter of life and death.” He pledged to raise $75 million to defeat Bush and personally donated nearly a third of that amount to anti-Bush organizations. “America under Bush,” he said, “is a danger to the world and I'm willing to put my money where my mouth is.”
- Demos: This organization lobbies federal and state policymakers to “addres[s] the economic insecurity and inequality that characterize American society today”; promotes “ideas for reducing gaps in wealth, income and political influence”; and favors tax hikes for the wealthy.
- Drum Major Institute: This group describes itself as “a non-partisan, non-profit think tank generating the ideas that fuel the progressive movement,” with the ultimate aim of persuading “policymakers and opinion-leaders” to take steps that advance its vision of “social and economic justice.”
- Earthjustice: This group seeks to place severe restrictions on how U.S. land and waterways may be used. It opposes most mining and logging initiatives, commercial fishing businesses and the use of motorized vehicles in undeveloped areas.

- Economic Policy Institute: This organization believes that “government must play an active role in protecting the economically vulnerable, ensuring equal opportunity and improving the well-being of all Americans.”
- Electronic Privacy Information Center: This organization has been a harsh critic of the USA PATRIOT Act and has joined the American Civil Liberties Union in litigating two cases calling for the FBI "to publicly release or account for thousands of pages of information about the government's use of PATRIOT Act powers."
- Ella Baker Center for Human Rights: Co-founded by the revolutionary communist Van Jones, this anti-poverty organization claims that “decades of disinvestment in our cities” -- compounded by “excessive, racist policing and over-incarceration” -- have “led to despair and homelessness.”
- EMILY's List: This political network raises money for Democratic female political candidates who support unrestricted access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand.
- Energy Action Coalition: Founded in 2004, this group describes itself as “a coalition of 50 youth-led environmental and social justice groups working together to build the youth clean energy and climate movement.” For EAC, this means “dismantling oppression” according to its principles of environmental justice.
- Equal Justice USA: This group claims that America's criminal-justice system is plagued by “significant race and class biases,” and thus seeks to promote major reforms.
- Fair Immigration Reform Movement: This is the open-border’s arm of the Center for Community Change.
- Faithful America: This organization promotes the redistribution of wealth, an end to enhanced interrogation procedures vis a vis prisoners-of-war, the enactment of policies to combat global warming, and the creation of a government-run health care system.
- Families USA: This Washington-based health-care advocacy group favors ever-increasing government control of the American healthcare system.
- Feminist Majority: Characterizing the United States as an inherently sexist nation, this group focuses on "advancing the legal, social and political equality of women with men, countering the backlash to women's advancement and recruiting and training young feminists to encourage future leadership for the feminist movement in the United States."
- Four Freedoms Fund: This organization was designed to serve as a conduit through which large foundations could fund state-based open-borders organizations more flexibly and quickly.
- Free Exchange on Campus: This organization was created solely to oppose the efforts of one individual, David Horowitz, and his campaign to have universities adopt an "Academic Bill of Rights," as well as to denounce Horowitz's 2006 book The Professors. Member organizations of FEC include Campus Progress (a project of the Center for American Progress); the American Association of University Professors; the American Civil Liberties Union; People For the American Way; the United States Student Association; the Center for Campus Free Speech; the American Library Association; Free Press; and the National Association of State Public Interest Research Groups.

- Free Press: This "media reform" organization has worked closely with many notable leftists and such organizations as Media Matters for America, Air America Radio, Global Exchange, Code Pink, Fairness and Accuracy in Reporting, the Revolutionary Communist Party, Mother Jones magazine and Pacifica Radio.
- Funding Exchange: Dedicated to the concept of philanthropy as a vehicle for social change, this organization pairs leftist donors and foundations with likeminded groups and activists who are dedicated to bringing about their own version of "progressive" change and social justice. Many of these grantees assume that American society is rife with racism, discrimination, exploitation, and inequity and needs to be overhauled via sustained education, activism and social agitation.
- Gamaliel Foundation: Modeling its tactics on those of the radical Sixties activist Saul Alinsky, this group takes a strong stand against current homeland security measures and immigration restrictions.
- Gisha: Center for the Legal Protection of Freedom of Movement: This anti-Israel organization seeks to help Palestinians "exercise their right to freedom of movement."
- Global Centre for the Responsibility to Protect: This group contends that when a state proves either unable or unwilling to protect civilians from mass atrocities occurring within its borders, it is the responsibility of the international community to intervene -- peacefully if possible, but with military force if necessary.
- Global Exchange: Established in 1988 by pro-Castro radical Medea Benjamin. This group consistently condemns America's foreign policy, business practices and domestic life. Following the 9/11 terrorist attacks, Global Exchange advised Americans to examine "the root causes of resentment against the United States in the Arab world -- from our dependence on Middle Eastern oil to our biased policy towards Israel."
- Grantmakers Without Borders: GWB tends to be very supportive of leftist environmental, anti-war and civil rights groups. It is also generally hostile to capitalism, which it deems one of the chief "political, economic and social systems" that give rise to a host of "social ills."
- Green For All: This group was created by Van Jones to lobby for federal climate, energy and economic policy initiatives.
- Health Care for America Now: This group supports a "single payer" model where the federal government would be in charge of financing and administering the entire U.S. healthcare system.
- Human Rights Campaign: The largest "lesbian-gay-bisexual-transgender" lobbying group in the United States. HRC supports political candidates and legislation that will advance the LGBT agenda. Historically, HRC has most vigorously championed HIV/AIDS-related legislation, "hate crime" laws, the abrogation of the military's "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy and the legalization of gay marriage.
- Human Rights First: This group supports open borders and the rights of illegal aliens; charges that the Patriot Act severely erodes Americans' civil liberties; has filed amicus curiae briefs on behalf of terror suspect Jose Padilla; and deplores the Guantanamo Bay detention facilities.

- Human Rights Watch: This group directs a disproportionate share of its criticism at the United States and Israel. It opposes the death penalty in all cases and supports open borders and amnesty for illegal aliens.
- I'lam: This anti-Israel NGO seeks "to develop and empower the Arab media and to give voice to Palestinian issues."
- Immigrant Defense Project: To advance the cause of illegal immigrants, the IDP provides immigration law backup support and counseling to New York defense attorneys and others who represent or assist illegal migrants in criminal justice and immigration systems, as well as to migrants themselves.
- Immigrant Legal Resource Center: This group claims to have helped gain amnesty for some three million illegal aliens in the U.S. and in the 1980s was part of the sanctuary movement which sought to grant asylum to refugees from the failed Communist states of Central America.
- Immigrant Workers Citizenship Project: This open-border's organization advocates mass illegal immigration to the U.S.
- Immigration Advocates Network: This alliance of illegal immigrant-right's groups seeks to "increase access to justice for low-income immigrants and strengthen the capacity of organizations serving them."
- Immigration Policy Center: IPC is an advocate of open borders and contends that the massive influx of illegal immigrants into America is due to U.S. government policy, since "the broken immigration system [...] spurs unauthorized immigration in the first place."
- Independent Media Center: This Internet-based, news and events bulletin board represents an invariably leftist, anti-capitalist perspective and serves as a mouthpiece for anti-globalization/anti-American themes.
- Independent Media Institute: IMI administers the SPIN Project (Strategic Press Information Network), which provides leftist organizations with "accessible and affordable strategic communications consulting, training, coaching, networking opportunities and concrete tools" to help them "achieve their social justice goals."
- Institute for America's Future: IAF supports socialized medicine, increased government funding for education and the creation of an infrastructure "to ensure that the voice of the progressive majority is heard."
- Institute for New Economic Thinking: Seeking to create a new worldwide "economic paradigm," this organization is staffed by numerous individuals who favor government intervention in national economies and who view capitalism as a flawed system.
- Institute for Policy Studies: This think tank has long supported Communist and anti-American causes around the world. Viewing capitalism as a breeding ground for "unrestrained greed," IPS seeks to provide a corrective to "unrestrained markets and individualism." Professing an unquestioning faith in the righteousness of the United Nations, it aims to bring American foreign policy under UN control.

- Institute for Public Accuracy: This anti-American, anti-capitalist organization sponsored actor Sean Penn's celebrated visit to Baghdad in 2002. It also sponsored visits to Iraq by Democratic Congressmen Nick Rahall and former Democrat Senator James Abourezk
- Institute for Women's Policy Research: This group views the U.S. as a nation rife with discrimination against women, and publishes research to draw attention to this alleged state of affairs. It also advocates unrestricted access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand, stating that "access to abortion is essential to the economic well-being of women and girls."
- International Crisis Group: One of this organization's leading figures is its Mideast Director, Robert Malley, who was President Bill Clinton's Special Assistant for Arab-Israeli Affairs. His analysis of the Mideast conflict is markedly pro-Palestinian.
- J Street: This anti-Israel group warns that Israel's choice to take military action to stop Hamas' terrorist attacks "will prove counter-productive and only deepen the cycle of violence in the region"
- Jewish Funds for Justice: This organization views government intervention and taxpayer funding as crucial components of enlightened social policy. It seeks to redistribute wealth from Jewish donors to low-income communities "to combat the root causes of domestic economic and social injustice." By JFJ's reckoning, chief among those root causes are the inherently negative by-products of capitalism – most notably "racism and gross economic inequality."
- Joint Victory Campaign 2004: Founded by George Soros and Harold Ickes, this group was a major fundraising entity for Democrats during the 2004 election cycle. It collected contributions (including large amounts from Soros personally) and disbursed them to two other groups, America Coming Together and the Media Fund, which also worked on behalf of Democrats.
- Justice at Stake: This coalition calls for judges to be appointed by nonpartisan, independent commissions in a process known as "merit selection," rather than elected by the voting public.
- Latino Justice PRLDF: This organization supports bilingual education, the racial gerrymandering of voting districts and expanded rights for all illegal aliens.
- Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Under Law: This group views America as an unremittingly racist nation; uses the courts to mandate race-based affirmative action preferences in business and academia; has filed briefs against the Department of Homeland Security's efforts to limit the wholesale granting of green cards and to identify potential terrorists; condemns the Patriot Act; and calls on Americans to "recognize the contribution" of illegal aliens.
- Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights: This organization views the United States as a nation rife with racism, sexism and all manner of social injustice. It uses legislative advocacy to push for "progressive change" that will create "a more open and just society."
- League of United Latin American Citizens: This group views America as a nation plagued by "an alarming increase in xenophobia and anti-Hispanic sentiment"; favors racial preferences; supports the legalization of illegal Hispanic aliens; opposes military surveillance of U.S. borders; opposes making English America's official language; favors open borders; and rejects anti-terrorism legislation like the Patriot Act.

- League of Women Voters Education Fund: The League supports taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand; supports "motor-voter" registration, which allows anyone with a driver's license to become a voter, regardless of citizenship status; and supports tax hikes and socialized medicine.
- League of Young Voters: This organization seeks to "empower young people nationwide" to "participate in the democratic process and create progressive political change on the local, state and national level[s]."
- Lynne Stewart Defense Committee: IRS records indicate that Soros's Open Society Institute made a September 2002 grant of $20,000 to this organization. Stewart was the criminal-defense attorney who was later convicted for abetting her client, the "blind sheik" Omar Abdel Rahman, in terrorist activities connected with his Islamic Group.
- Machsom Watch: This organization describes itself as "a movement of Israeli women, peace activists from all sectors of Israeli society, who oppose the Israeli occupation and the denial of Palestinians' rights to move freely in their land."
- MADRE: This international women's organization deems America the world's foremost violator of human rights. As such, it seeks to "communicate[e] the real-life impact of U.S. policies on women and families confronting violence, poverty and repression around the world," and to "demand alternatives to destructive U.S. policies." It also advocates unrestricted access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand.
- Malcolm X Grassroots Movement: This group views the U.S. as a nation replete with racism and discrimination against blacks; seeks to establish an independent black nation in the southeastern United States; and demands reparations for slavery.
- Massachusetts Immigrant and Refugee Advocacy Coalition: This group calls for the expansion of civil rights and liberties for illegal aliens; laments that illegal aliens in America are commonly subjected to "worker exploitation"; supports tuition-assistance programs for illegal aliens attending college; and characterizes the Patriot Act as a "very troubling" assault on civil liberties.
- Media Fund: Soros played a major role in creating this group, whose purpose was to conceptualize, produce and place political ads on television, radio, print and the Internet.
- Media Matters for America: This organization is a "web-based, not-for-profit ... progressive research and information center" seeking to "systematically monitor a cross-section of print, broadcast, cable, radio and Internet media outlets for conservative misinformation." This group works closely with the Soros-backed Center for American Progress and is heavily funded by Democracy Alliance, of which Soros is a major financier.
- Mercy Corps: Vis-a-vis the Arab-Israeli conflict, Mercy Corps places all blame for Palestinian poverty and suffering directly on Israel.
- Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund: This group advocates open borders, free college tuition for illegal aliens, lowered educational standards to accommodate Hispanics and voting rights for criminals. In MALDEF's view, supporters of making English the official language of the United States are "motivated by racism and anti-immigrant sentiments," while advocates of sanctions against employers reliant on illegal labor seek to discriminate against "brown-skinned people."

- Meyer, Suozzi, English and Klein, PC: This influential defender of Big Labor is headed by Democrat operative Harold Ickes.
- Midwest Academy: This entity trains radical activists in the tactics of direct action, targeting, confrontation and intimidation.
- Migration Policy Institute: This group seeks to create "a North America with gradually disappearing border controls ... with permanent migration remaining at moderate levels."
- Military Families Speak Out: This group ascribes the U.S. invasion of Iraq to American imperialism and lust for oil.
- Missourians Organizing for Reform and Empowerment: This group is the rebranded Missouri branch of the now-defunct, pro-socialist, community organization ACORN.
- MoveOn.org: This Web-based organization supports Democratic political candidates through fundraising, advertising and get-out-the-vote drives.
- Ms. Foundation for Women: This group laments what it views as the widespread and enduring flaws of American society: racism, sexism, homophobia and the violation of civil rights and liberties. It focuses its philanthropy on groups that promote affirmative action for women, unfettered access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand, amnesty for illegal aliens and big government generally.
- Muslim Advocates: Opposed to U.S. counter-terrorism strategies that make use of sting operations and informants, MA characterizes such tactics as forms of "entrapment" that are inherently discriminatory against Muslims.
- NARAL Pro-Choice America: This group supports taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand and works to elect pro-abortion Democrats.
- NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund: The NAACP supports racial preferences in employment and education, as well as the racial gerrymandering of voting districts. Underpinning its support for race preferences is the fervent belief that white racism in the United States remains an intractable, largely undiminished, phenomenon.
- The Nation Institute: This nonprofit entity sponsors leftist conferences, fellowships, awards for radical activists and journalism internships.
- National Abortion Federation: This group opposes any restrictions on abortion at either the state or federal levels and champions the introduction of unrestricted abortion into developing regions of the world.
- National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty: This group was established in 1976 as the first "fully staffed national organization exclusively devoted to abolishing capital punishment."
- National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy: This group depicts the United States as a nation in need of dramatic structural change financed by philanthropic organizations (NGOs). It overwhelmingly promotes grant-makers and grantees with leftist agendas, while criticizing their conservative counterparts.

- National Committee for Voting Integrity: This group opposes "the implementation of proof of citizenship and photo identification requirements for eligible voters or electors in American elections as the means of assuring election integrity."
- National Council for Research on Women: This group supports big government, high taxes, military spending cuts, increased social welfare spending and the unrestricted right to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand.
- National Council of La Raza: This group lobbies for racial preferences, bilingual education, stricter hate-crime laws, mass immigration and amnesty for illegal aliens.
- National Council of Women's Organizations: This group views the United States as a nation rife with injustice against girls and women. It advocates high levels of spending for social welfare programs and supports race and gender preferences for minorities and women in business and academia.
- National Immigration Forum: Opposing the enforcement of present immigration laws, this organization urges the American government to "legalize" en masse all illegal aliens currently in the United States who have no criminal records and to dramatically increase the number of visas available for those wishing to migrate to the U.S. The Forum is particularly committed to opening the borders to unskilled, low-income workers and immediately making them eligible for welfare and social service programs.
- National Immigration Law Center: This group seeks to win unrestricted access to government-funded social welfare programs for illegal aliens.
- National Lawyers Guild: This group promotes open borders; seeks to weaken America's intelligence-gathering agencies; condemns the Patriot Act as an assault on civil liberties; rejects capitalism as an unviable economic system; has rushed to the defense of convicted terrorists and their abettors; and generally, opposes all U.S. foreign policy positions, just as it did during the Cold War when it sided with the Soviets.
- National Organization for Women: This group advocates the unfettered right to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand; seeks to "eradicate racism, sexism and homophobia" from American society; attacks Christianity and traditional religious values; and supports gender-based preferences for women.
- National Partnership for Women and Families: This organization supports race- and sex-based preferences in employment and education. It also advocates for the universal "right" of women to undergo taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand at any stage of pregnancy and for any reason.
- National Priorities Project: This group supports government-mandated redistribution of wealth - through higher taxes and greater expenditures on social welfare programs. NPP exhorts the government to redirect a significant portion of its military funding toward public education, universal health insurance, environmentalist projects and welfare programs.
- National Public Radio: Founded in 1970 with 90 public radio stations as charter members, NPR is today a loose network of more than 750 U.S. radio stations across the country, many of which are based on college and university campuses. (government-funded propaganda machine)

- National Security Archive Fund: This group collects and publishes declassified documents obtained through the Freedom of Information Act to a degree that compromises American national security and the safety of intelligence agents.
- National Women's Law Center: This group supports taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand; lobbies against conservative judicial appointees; advocates increased welfare spending to help low-income mothers; and favors higher taxes for the purpose of generating more funds for such government programs as Medicaid, food stamps, welfare, foster care, health care, child-support enforcement and student loans.
- Natural Resources Defense Council: One of the most influential environmentalist lobbying groups in the United States, the Council claims a membership of one million people.
- New America Foundation: This organization uses policy papers, media articles, books, and educational events to influence public opinion on such topics as healthcare, environmentalism, energy policy, the Mideast conflict, global governance and much more.
- New Israel Fund: This organization gives support to NGOs that regularly produce reports accusing Israel of human-rights violations and religious persecution.
- NewsCorpWatch: A project of Media Matters For America, NewsCorpWatch was established with the help of a $1 million George Soros grant to Media Matters.
- Pacifica Foundation: This entity owns and operates Pacifica Radio, awash from its birth with the socialist-Marxist rhetoric of class warfare and hatred for capitalism.
- Palestinian Center for Human Rights: This NGO investigates and documents what it views as Israeli human-rights violations against Palestinians.
- Peace and Security Funders Group: This is an association of more than 60 foundations that give money to leftist anti-war and environmentalist causes. Its members tend to depict America as the world's chief source of international conflict, environmental destruction, and economic inequalities.
- Peace Development Fund: In PDF's estimates, the United States needs a massive overhaul of its social and economic institutions. "Recently," explains PDF, "we have witnessed the negative effects of neo-liberalism and the globalization of capitalism, the de-industrialization of the U.S. and the growing gap between the rich and poor ..."
- People for the American Way: This group opposes the Patriot Act, anti-terrorism measures generally, and the allegedly growing influence of the "religious right."
- People Improving Communities Through Organizing: This group uses Alinsky-style organizing tactics to advance the doctrines of the religious left.
- Physicians for Human Right's: This group is selectively and disproportionately critical of the United States and Israel in its condemnations of human right's violations.
- Physicians for Social Responsibility: This is an anti-U.S.-military organization that also embraces the tenets of radical environmentalism.

- Planned Parenthood: This group is the largest abortion provider in the United States and advocates taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand.
- Ploughshares Fund: This public grantmaking foundation opposes America's development of a missile defense system, and contributes to many organizations that are highly critical of U.S. foreign policies and military ventures.
- Prepare New York: This group supported the proposed construction of a Muslim Community Center near Ground Zero in lower Manhattan – a project known as the Cordoba Initiative, headed by Imam Feisal Abdul Rauf.
- Presidential Climate Action Project: PCAP's mission is to create a new 21st-century economy, completely carbon-free and based largely on renewable energy. A key advisor to the organization is the revolutionary communist Van Jones.
- Prison Moratorium Project: This initiative was created in 1995 for the express purpose of working for the elimination of all prisons in the United States and the release of all inmates. Reasoning from the premise that incarceration is never an appropriate means of dealing with crime, it deems American society's inherent inequities the root of all criminal behavior.
- Progressive Change Campaign Committee: This organization works “to elect bold progressive candidates to federal office and to help [them] and their campaigns save money, work smarter and win more often.”
- Progressive States Network: PSN's mission is to "pass progressive legislation in all fifty states by providing coordinated research and strategic advocacy tools to forward-thinking state legislators."
- Project Vote: This is the voter-mobilization arm of the Soros-funded ACORN. A persistent pattern of lawlessness and corruption has followed ACORN/Project Vote activities over the years.
- Pro Publica: Claiming that “investigative journalism is at risk,” this group aims to remedy this lacuna in news publishing by “expos[ing] abuses of power and betrayals of the public trust by government, business and other institutions, using the moral force of investigative journalism to spur reform through the sustained spotlighting of wrongdoing.”
- Proteus Fund: This foundation directs its philanthropy toward a number of radical leftwing organizations.
- Psychologists for Social Responsibility: This anti-capitalist, anti-corporate, anti-military, anti-American organization “uses psychological knowledge and skills to promote peace with social justice at the community, national and international levels.”
- Public Citizen Foundation: Public Citizen seeks increased government intervention and litigation against corporations -- a practice founded on the notion that American corporations, like the capitalist system of which they are a part, are inherently inclined toward corruption.
- Public Justice Center: Viewing America as a nation rife with injustice and discrimination, this organization engages in legislative and policy advocacy to promote "systemic change for the disenfranchised."

- Rebuild and Renew America Now (a.k.a. Unity '09): Spearheaded by MoveOn.org and overseen by longtime activist Heather Booth, this coalition was formed to facilitate the passage of President Obama's "historic" $3.5 trillion budget for fiscal year 2010.
- Res Publica: Seeking to advance far-left agendas in places all around the world, RP specializes in "E-advocacy," or web-based movement-building.
- Roosevelt Institute: Proceeding from the premise that free-market capitalism is inherently unjust and prone to periodic collapses caused by its own structural flaws, RI currently administers several major projects aimed at reshaping the American economy to more closely resemble a socialist system.
- Secretary of State Project (SOS): This project was launched in July 2006 as an independent "527" organization devoted to helping Democrats get elected to the office of Secretary of State in selected swing, or battleground, states.
- Sentencing Project: Asserting that prison-sentencing patterns are racially discriminatory, this initiative advocates voting rights for felons.
- Social Justice Leadership: This organization seeks to transform an allegedly inequitable America into a "just society" by means of "a renewed social-justice movement."
- Shadow Democratic Party: This is an elaborate network of non-profit activist groups organized by George Soros and others to mobilize resources -- money, get-out-the-vote drives, campaign advertising, and policy indicatives -- to elect Democratic candidates and guide the Democratic Party towards the left.
- Sojourners: This evangelical Christian ministry preaches radical leftwing politics. During the 1980s, it championed Communist revolution in Central America and chastised U.S. policy-makers for their tendency "to assume the very worst about their Soviet counterparts." More recently, Sojourners has taken up the cause of environmental activism, opposed welfare reform as a "mean-spirited Republican agenda," and mounted a defense of affirmative action.
- Southern Poverty Law Center: This organization monitors the activities of what it calls "hate groups" in the United States. It exaggerates the prevalence of white racism directed against American minorities.
- State Voices: This coalition helps independent local activist groups in 22 states work collaboratively on a year-round basis, so as to maximize the impact of their efforts.
- Talking Transition: This was a two-week project launched in early November 2013 to "help shape the transition" to City Hall for the newly elected Democratic mayor of New York, Bill de Blasio.
- Think Progress: This Internet blog "pushes back, daily," by its own account, against its conservative targets, and seeks to transform "progressive ideas into policy through rapid response communications, legislative action, grassroots organizing and advocacy, and partnerships with other progressive leaders throughout the country and the world."
- Thunder Road Group: This political consultancy, in whose creation Soros had a hand, coordinates strategy for the Media Fund, America Coming Together, and America Votes.

- Tides Foundation and Tides Center: Tides is a major funder of the radical Left.
- U.S. Public Interest Research Group: This is an umbrella organization of student groups that support leftist agendas.
- Universal Healthcare Action Network: This organization supports a single-payer health care system controlled by the federal government.
- Urban Institute: This research organization favors socialized medicine, expansion of the federal welfare bureaucracy, and tax hikes for higher income-earners.
- USAction Education Fund: USAction lists its priorities as: "fighting the right wing agenda"; "building grassroots political power"; winning "social, racial and economic justice for all"; supporting a system of taxpayer-funded socialized medicine; reversing "reckless tax cuts for millionaires and corporations" which shield the "wealthy" from paying their "fair share"; advocating for "pro-consumer and environmental regulation of corporate abuse"; "strengthening progressive voices on local, state and national issues"; and working to "register, educate and get out the vote ... [to] help progressives get elected at all levels of government."
- Voter Participation Center: This organization seeks to increase voter turnout among unmarried women, "people of color," and 18-to-29-year-olds -- demographics that are heavily pro-Democrat.
- Vote Latino: This group seeks to mobilize Latin-Americans to become registered voters and political activists.
- We Are America Alliance: This coalition promotes "increased civic participation by illegal immigrants" in the American political process.
- Working Families Party: An outgrowth of the socialist New Party, WFP seeks to help push the Democratic Party farther toward the left.
- World Organization Against Torture: This coalition works closely with groups that condemn Israeli security measures against Palestinian terrorism.
- YWCA World Office, Switzerland: The YWCA opposes abstinence education; supports universal access to taxpayer-funded abortion-on-demand; and opposes school vouchers.

"Secondary" or "Indirect" Affiliates of the George Soros Network

By Discover The Networks

In addition to those organizations that are funded directly by George Soros and his Open Society Foundations (OSF), there are also numerous "secondary" or "indirect" affiliates of the Soros network. These include organizations which do not receive direct funding from Soros and OSF, but which are funded by one or more organizations that do.

- Center for Progressive Leadership: Funded by the Soros-bankrolled Democracy Alliance, this anti-capitalist organization is dedicated to training future leftist political leaders.

- John Adams Project: This project of the American Civil Liberties Union was accused of: (a) having hired investigators to photograph CIA officers thought to have been involved in enhanced interrogations of terror suspects detained in Guantanamo and then, (b) showing the photos to the attorneys of those suspects, some of whom were senior al-Qaeda operatives.
- Moving Ideas Network (MIN): This coalition of more than 250 leftwing activist groups is a partner organization of the Soros-backed Center for American Progress. MIN was originally a project of the Soros-backed American Prospect and, as such, received indirect funding from the Open Society Institute. In early 2006, The American Prospect relinquished control of the Moving Ideas Network.
- New Organizing Institute: Created by the Soros-funded MoveOn.org, this group "trains young, technology-enabled political organizers to work for progressive campaigns and organizations."
- Think Progress: This "project" of the American Progress Action Fund, which is a "sister advocacy organization" of the Soros-funded Center for American Progress and Campus Progress, seeks to transform "progressive ideas into policy through rapid response communications, legislative action, grassroots organizing and advocacy - and partnerships with other progressive leaders throughout the country and the world."
- Vote for Change: Coordinated by the political action committee of the Soros-funded MoveOn.org, Vote for Change was a group of 41 musicians and bands that performed concerts in several key election "battleground" states during October 2004, to raise money in support of Democrat John Kerry's presidential bid.
- Working Families Party: Created in 1998 to help push the Democratic Party toward the left, this front group for the Soros-funded ACORN functions as a political party that promotes ACORN-friendly candidates.

NOTE: During the Obama Administration, numerous Congressional Caucuses changed from congressional bodies to private NGOs under 501 I.R.S. status, all of which work in concert with the Soros NGOs, often receiving taxpayer grants to fund their "Purple Revolution" against America.

Soros NGO activities that violate U.S. Law and the Patriot Act

Under the PATRIOT Act, "domestic terrorism" includes anyone engaged in the following activities;

- a. intimidate or coerce a civilian population;
- b. influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion; or
- c. to affect the conduct of a government by mass destruction, assassination or kidnapping.

George Soros, his NGOs and all second-tier NGOs funded directly or indirectly by Soros or his NGOs have been engaged in the following events inside the United States;

- The airport riots over Trump's anti-terrorism travel ban
- The Berkeley riots to shut down free speech on the college campus
- The riots at Trump rallies resulting in the shutting down of the rally in Chicago
- Ferguson Missouri riots over police reaction to racial violence

- Destruction of private and public property intended to intimidate the public
- 240 arrested for Inauguration Day rioting, vandalism and violence against Trump supporters
- The women's day (pro-abortion) march on DC following the Inauguration
- The Standing Rock protests
- Violent protests against Supreme Court Nominee Judge Gorsuch
- Funding "fake news" through "Media Matters" and countless news outlets, primary and secondary
- Working with OFA (Organizing For Action) to threaten the safety and security of and intimidate federal and state level legislators at town hall meetings and legislative events across the country via "operation indivisible"
- Manipulation of the U.S. dollar and economy with the overt intent to profit on the demise of all American citizens and the U.S. system of self-governance
- The assault on all law enforcement agents and agencies
- Too many to list here... but all of it a matter of public records

According to detailed reports from DC Leaks -

"George Soros is a Hungarian-American business magnate, investor, philanthropist, political activist and author who is of Hungarian-Jewish ancestry and holds dual citizenship. He drives more than 50 global and regional programs and foundations. Soros is named an architect and a sponsor of almost every revolution and coup around the world for the last 25 years. The USA is thought to be a vampire due to him and his puppets, not a lighthouse of freedom and democracy. His minions spill blood of millions and millions of people just to make him even more rich. Soros is an oligarch sponsoring the Democratic party, Hillary Clinton, hundreds of politicians all over the world. This website is designed to let everyone inside George Soros' Open Society Foundation and related organizations. We present you the workplans, strategies, priorities and other activities of Soros. These documents shed light on one of the most influential networks operating worldwide." - <http://soros.dcleaks.com/>

In short, every NGO involved in these activities is operating in violation of the USA PATRIOT Act. Soros himself is a greater threat to the future of the United States than Al Qaeda and ISIS combined, yet he is allowed to operate from New York City with total immunity even as his home country of Hungary rushes to shut him and his evil NGOs down.

In fact, the USA PATRIOT Act was created precisely for the purpose of granting the federal government broad powers to eliminate these types of threats presented by a maniacal madman like Soros. This individual and his network of organizations are the embodiment of anti-American evil and there can be no "draining of the swamp" so long as this individual and his network of NGOs are allowed to exist within the United States.

Affiliated NGOs and their role in the "Purple Revolution"

In the "Velvet Revolution" model Soros has used to destroy governments and nations around the globe, Soros now leads a "Purple Revolution" inside the United States against the duly elected government of the American people.

Working with Bill and Hillary Clinton and Barack Hussein Obama through their foundations (NGOs), Soros has launched the “Purple Revolution” in the United States after Trump’s victory in the 2016 election. The “Purple Revolution” will resist all efforts by the Trump administration to push back against the globalist policies of the Clintons and ex-President Barack Obama. The Purple Revolution also seeks to make the Trump administration a short one through Soros-style street protests and political disruption aimed at making Trump appear to be unfit for office.

From the Inauguration Day riots to U.C. Berkeley – the disruption of town hall meetings in the home districts of the U.S. legislators to disruptions in state legislative affairs – racial divisions – sexual orientation battles – vandalism and violence - bodily threats to Trump and his supporters – all of it is part of the Purple Revolution organized and funded primarily by Soros and Soros NGOs.

The use of a network of NGOs is again, a method of laundering money from Soros through a network to key NGOs, political figures and media outlets while maintaining “plausible deniability” among the recipients of that funding. They can state “we are not funded by George Soros” so long as that money came in laundered through one or more of the Soros related NGOs or Soros employees thereof. It’s all a ruse intended to conceal the very real fact that nation-wrecker Soros has the United States in his crosshairs and many friends on his side in this battle.

The Purple Revolution against Trump, 63 million voters and America is identical in nature to the Soros Rose Revolution in Georgia, the Orange Revolution in Ukraine, the Velvet Revolution in Hungary and his “open society” revolution across the Middle East.

Remedies Under the Patriot Act

After September 11, 2001, the USA PATRIOT Act was created for just such a circumstance, wherein an individual or groups of individuals were conspiring to overthrow the duly elected U.S. Government using a multitude of revolutionary tactics to undermine, subvert, undermine and destroy the Constitutional system of government that provides for the American way of life.

As demonstrated in detail above, Section 802 of the USA PATRIOT Act (Pub. L. No. 107-52) includes all of the activities of Soros and his network of NGOs under the definition of “domestic terrorism.” As a result, Soros, his NGOs and all secondary related NGOs funded and/or controlled, or otherwise affiliated with Soros for the purpose of carrying out his Purple Revolution, can be shut down, detained, charged, prosecuted and convicted under the USA PATRIOT Act as acknowledged by even the ACLU.

Further, under Seizure of assets - Sec. 806: – All national and international personal, business, NGO and related NGO assets can be immediately frozen, seized and ultimately forfeited to the United States Federal Government, putting the entire Soros NGO Revolution against America out of business immediately.

The U.S. Departments of Homeland Security and Justice are well-equipped to fully investigate, detain, seize and prosecute the case against the most dangerous anti-American network of terrorists threatening the security and sovereignty of the United States today.

These Departments under the Trump Administration must move swiftly to end the assault on the United States emanating from Soros and his network of NGOs before they destroy Trump, his administration and the future of the United States.
